MZINGA INCUBATION PROGRAM PITCHES INNOVATION AT BUSINESS BREAKFAST EVENT

The Malawi Stock Exchange on 10th October 2025 hosted a business breakfast at Ryalls Hotel in Blantyre, which brought together stakeholders from the capital markets, financial services and private sector for a morning of inspiration, networking and innovation.

The event began with welcoming remarks from Mr. John Robson Kamanga, Chief Executive Officer of Malawi Stock Exchange. This was followed by a speech from Mr. Kenneth Mmadi, General Manager at Continental Capital Limited and a member of the Mzinga Incubation Program Technical Committee.

Mr. Mayamiko Mbendera, Corporate Finance Transaction Officer at NICO Capital Limited, represented the Corporate Advisors in the program, delivering a speech that emphasized the importance of financial guidance and strategic support for emerging businesses. These introductions set the tone for a dynamic showcase of entrepreneurial talent.

Six incubate companies; Agro Input Suppliers Limited, Combine Cargo, Nagowa Finance Limited, Unified Technologies Limited, Wealthnet Finance Limited and Ziweto Enterprises Limited, presented their pitches during a focused session, each highlighting innovative and viable business models.

Participants enjoyed a well-rated breakfast experience and a vibrant networking session, which allowed for deeper engagement and potential collaborations. Feedback from attendees emphasized the value of the pitches, the quality of organization, and the opportunity to connect with new entrepreneurial talent. The event successfully introduced many attendees to a deeper understanding of the business of incubation participants, underscoring Mzinga's growing impact in spotlighting businesses in Malawi.
