

THE MALAWI STOCK EXCHANGE BUSINESS BREAKFAST IN PICTURES 12TH DECEMBER 2023—BICC

The Malawi Stock Exchange conducted a business breakfast on 12th December, 2023 at BICC in Lilongwe. The business breakfast was designed to provide valuable insights into the stock market operations, enhance the public's understanding of the platforms available for them to raise capital and to provide opportunity for attendees to network with industry professionals. The business breakfast brought together industry experts from the capital markets as speakers to provide insights and practical solutions to raising capital through the MSE's Listing platforms.

The event was intended to increase awareness and encourage companies to list on the Malawi Stock Exchange. The business breakfast was attended by business captains from various institutions in government and private sector. Mr. John Robson Kamanga, Chief Executive Officer of the Malawi Stock Exchange gave the welcoming remarks, followed by the breakfast. Two presentations were also made soon after the breakfast as follows:

- Opportunities for raising financing through listing, and how companies can enhance their readiness to list on the Exchange, by Mr. Emmanuel Chokani, Chief Executive Office for Bridgepath Capital Limited
- What investors look for when financing companies and common challenges encountered with companies seeking to raise capital, by Mr. Dennis Kawawa, Investment Banking Associate for CDH Investment Bank.

Thereafter, a question-and-answer session was conducted, which not only provided valuable insights, but also allowed attendees to participate and seek clarifications on what was presented. The closing remarks were done by the MSE Chairman, Professor James Kamwachale Khomba.
