

THE MALAWI STOCK EXCHANGE CONDUCTED A WORKSHOP ON ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE

The Malawi Stock Exchange (MSE) hosted an extensive workshop on Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) on 15 March, 2024. The workshop, conducted both physically and virtually, aimed to create and distribute ESG guidelines specifically tailored for listed companies.

Mrs Kelline Kondowe, Chief Operating Officer, Malawi Stock Exchange, initiated the event with opening remarks, followed by a presentation on "The evolution of ESG and why it matters" by Mr. Arnold Kweyani Mbwana, Chief Executive Officer of Bartlett Consulting Group Africa. Additionally, Mrs Kelline Kondowe, Chief Operating Officer, Malawi Stock Exchange, provided an overview of "Introduction to GRI standards," educating participants on globally recognized sustainability reporting frameworks.

The workshop included an interactive question and answer session, enabling direct engagement between attendees and presenters to enhance comprehension of ESG concepts. Mr. Madalitso Mittochi, Finance Manager and Company Secretary, concluded the session with closing remarks, summarizing key insights and expressing gratitude for active participation.

Cross-section of participants at Environmental, Social and Governance Workshop following attentively.

Mrs Kelline Kondowe, Chief Operating Officer, Malawi Stock Exchange, making a presentation on Introduction to GRI standards, during the Environmental, Social and Governance Workshop at MSE

Mr. Madalitso Mittochi, Finance Manager and Company Secretary, delivering the closing remarks during the Environmental, Social and Governance Workshop at MSE

Mr Arnold Kweyani Mbwana, CEO Bartlett Consulting Group Africa, making a presentation on The evolution of ESG and why it matters, during the Environmental, Social and Governance Workshop at MSE

Cross-section of participants at Environmental, Social and Governance Workshop at MSE