

MSE AND CFA SOCIETY SOUTH AFRICA HOST “RING THE BELL FOR GENDER EQUALITY 2025”

On 7th March 2025, the Malawi Stock Exchange (MSE), in partnership with CFA Society South Africa, commemorated International Women's Day by hosting the "Accelerate Action - Ring the Bell for Gender Equality 2025" event at the MSE offices. The event aimed to promote gender equality in leadership and the financial sector.

The event opened with remarks from MSE Chief Operating Officer, Mrs. Kelline Kondowe, followed by an insightful interview session on leadership resilience featuring Mrs. Memory Chipembere, Head of Legal and Compliance at NICO Asset Managers, moderated by Mrs. Kelline Kondowe. Participants engaged in a Q&A session, gaining valuable leadership insights.

Mrs. Kelline Kondowe, Chief Operating Officer of the Malawi Stock Exchange, delivering welcoming remarks at the International Women's Day 2025 commemoration held at the MSE office.

An interview session with Mrs. Memory Chipembere, Head of Legal & Compliance at NICO Asset Managers (right), on the topic “Building Resilience as a Leader”, moderated by Mrs. Kelline Kondowe, Chief Operating Officer of MSE, during the International Women's Day commemoration at the MSE office.

Mrs. Allidah D. Namame Mulamba, CEO & Founder of Your Image by D. Henson, delivering a presentation on Personality Branding during the International Women's Day commemoration at the MSE office.

A cross-section of participants attending the International Women's Day 2025 commemoration at the MSE office.

From left to right: Kelline Kondowe facilitated an insightful interview on building resilience as a leader, Memory Chipembere shared her experiences as a female leader in a male-dominated field during the interview and Allida D. Namame Mulamba presented on personality branding during International Women's Day at the MSE office.

Participants ringing the bell for gender equality during the International Women's Day commemoration at the MSE offices.

The event concluded with closing remarks by Mrs. Kelline Kondowe, the distribution of goodie packs, networking and refreshments. Media coverage was provided by Times Television & Print, MBC, Capital FM Radio and The Nation Newspaper.

Feedback from attendees highlighted the event's relevance, the quality of speakers and the impactful discussions. MSE remains committed to championing gender equality and empowerment in the financial sector