

The Malawi Stock Exchange, in collaboration with GCX and the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Malawi (ICAM), participated in a LinkedIn Live discussion titled "Beyond the Balance Sheet: IFRS in Africa" on 22 October 2026.

The discussion explored the growing importance of sustainability in financial reporting, focusing on IFRS S1 and S2, which provide global standards for sustainability-related and climate-related financial disclosures. The panel discussed the relevance of sustainability to investment and lending decisions, practical steps for organisations to adopt the standards, and the roles and responsibilities involved in implementation.

The session featured the following panellists:

- Ohad Shachar : Director of Sustainability, GCX
- CA. Kelline Christabel Kondowe : Chief Operating Officer, Malawi Stock Exchange
- CA. Noel Zigowa : Chief Executive Officer, Institute of Chartered Accountants in Malawi (ICAM)

The engagement highlighted the importance of integrating sustainability considerations into corporate reporting to strengthen transparency, accountability and investor confidence.
